

IT'S YOUR LIFE...
LIVE IT YOUR WAY.

REGISTRATION PACKAGE

Fort McMurray Composite High School
 Date: Thursday October 27, 2011
 Event Time: 9 a.m. – 7 p.m.

Registration Information

All activities and events associated with the No Limits Youth Empowerment Day are offered free of cost to youth. The conference is open to local youth in Grades 10. If youth are not enrolled in school, but are age 15, they may still attend the conference.

Registration will be done by school, or for youth not in school, by community representative Stepping Stones Youth Home. Each site has been allotted a specific number of registration slots. Registration will be based upon school input, followed by first-come, first-served individual registration.

Sections A, B, C, D and the Workshop Selection Form of the following registration and consent forms must be completed and submitted for all participants of the No Limits Youth Empowerment Day.

All forms must be completed in full by the proper parties, signed and dated. ALL PARTICIPANTS MUST PROVIDE A SIGNED COPY OF THE INDEMNITY RELEASE (Page 6).

The Justin Slade Youth Foundation, Fort McMurray Public School District and Fort McMurray Catholic Board of Education representatives maintain final decision for sign-in registration and have the right to refuse any conference participant.

Registration forms must be returned to either the participant's school or community representative
Early Bird: OCTOBER 5, 2011 (registrations received in the early bird will be entered to win a prize)
Final Deadline: OCTOBER 12, 2011

Transportation

Each registrant will be transported from their school or community site by bus on the morning of Thursday October 27, 2011. Transportation will be provided back to schools at 7 p.m. that evening.

40 WHAT?

Did you know that every youth needs 40 Developmental Assets to become well-rounded successful individuals?
 We are proud to be promoting these Developmental Assets throughout our conference this year!
 Please check out this website for information regarding the Assets and find out what it's all about.

Event Rules and Procedures

Every participant must arrive at the conference with their school or their community representative.

It is expected every participant will act in a respectful manner to the venue and to all other persons including staff, presenters, facilitators, volunteers and other youth.

Cell phones, PDAs and other electronic devices must be turned off during presentations and workshops. They are permitted to be on during meal and snack times.

Absolutely no alcohol, drugs or paraphernalia will be tolerated. Anyone caught with this infraction will held accountable to the rules of their respective schools (which may include being having RCMP contacted) and have their parent or guardian contacted. They will be removed from the premises.

Any person involved in a fight or any other aggressive conduct, who is consistently interrupting the program, who is in possession of illicit substances or who has been deemed by security or conference organizers to be a threat to those around them will be removed from the premises, and their parent/guardian contacted. Any person causing damage or destruction to the premises will be removed, and their parent/guardian contacted. RCMP may be contacted based upon the discretion of the conference organizers.

Any door prizes, raffles or contest wins will be revoked if a conference participant is removed from the premises for inappropriate behaviour.

Any person causing damage, destruction or injury will be held liable for any and all related costs and penalties. All event and dance participants are subject to the law, conference rules and regulations, and to the rules and consequences of their respective schools.

Upon check-in each participant will receive an identification tag and schedule. The identification tag must be worn throughout the conference.

Each participant is expected to attend their assigned workshops, according to their schedule. Although organizers will attempt to place youth in their top choice workshops, workshops will be assigned based upon first-come first-served in receipt of registration packages.

Food and drink are permitted in designated areas only.

Meals will be provided throughout the day. It is the responsibility of the participant and their parent/guardian to identify any allergies or dietary requirements in the registration package.

It is the responsibility of parents/guardians to identify any medical issues in the registration package.

St. John Ambulance volunteers have been requested to be on site during the conference. In event of a medical emergency, First Aid will be administered to any conference participants, staff or volunteers. If deemed necessary by St. John Ambulance volunteers, the conference organizers retain the right to have any participants, staff or volunteers transported to the hospital.

Each participant is expected to spend the entirety of the day at the conference. No participant is to leave the venue for any reason. In case of illness or emergency, the parent/guardian of the participant will be contacted and the situation dealt with according to the participant's school's representative.

The Justin Slade Youth Foundation, Keyano College, Fort McMurray Composite High School, and all No Limits Youth committee members and conference supports are not responsible for any lost, stolen or damaged articles.
